SIR,—

I have the honour to transmit to Your Royal Highness, for the information of your Ministers, a copy of a notice published in the press on the 15th June, containing information for the guidance of persons desiring to record:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

2. The Foreign Claims Office referred to in the last paragraph of the notice has been set up at the Foreign Office for the purpose of dealing with all claims for the settlement of which no satisfactory machinery has existed hitherto, and which are foreign in the sense that they are claims by British subjects against a foreign Government or by foreign nationals against His Majesty's Government.

I have, etc.,
A. BONAR LAW.

The Governor-General,
His Royal Highness
The Duke of Connaught and of Strathearn, K.G.,

HOW TO RECORD CLAIMS.

WE are officially informed that it has been arranged that the Public Trustee shall keep a record of:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

Any person desiring to record such claims or property can obtain the necessary form for that purpose (Form G in the first case and Form H in the second) from the Public Trustee. Applications should be made to the Public Trustee (Trading with the Enemy Department), No. 2 Clement's Inn, Strand, W.C.

It must be clearly understood that the action of the Public Trustee will be confined to entering upon the record claims of which particulars are supplied to him, and that in no way commits His Majesty's Government either to responsibility for the correctness of the claim entered or to taking any action on the conclusion of hostilities or otherwise for the recovery of the debts or property in question.

The Public Trustee will record claims against enemy Governments in respect of public securities of those Governments held by the claimants, but other claims against enemy Governments (e.g., in respect of goods or property requisitioned or sequestered) as distinct from claims against enemy subjects should be notified to the Director of the Foreign Claims Office, Foreign Office, S.W.

Clerk, Executive Council.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

VICTORIA, B.C., 14th July, 1915.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of the "Court Rules of Practice Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

1. During the war no probate of a will or letters of administration of the estate of any German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subject, wherever resident, shall be granted in respect of any assets in this country without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance.

2. In all cases where probate or letters of administration are granted during the war to any person entitled thereto, the grant shall be made upon the condition that no portion of the assets shall be distributed or paid during the war to any beneficiary or creditor who is a German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subject, wherever resident, or to any one on his behalf, or to or on behalf of any person resident in Germany, Austro-Hungary, or Turkey, of whatever nationality, without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance; and if any distribution or payment is made contrary to this condition the grant of probate or letters of administration will be forthwith revoked.

4. In cases deemed by him proper, the Minister of Finance may sanction the payment of moderate sums out of assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subjects resident in this Province at the commencement of the war and during the war.

1. The interpretation of the terms "Censor," "film exchange," "films," "kinematograph," "moving - picture theatre," "operator," and "slides" contained in the interpretation section of the "Moving Pictures Act" shall extend to these Regulations.

Every licensee of a moving-picture theatre, film exchange, or kinematograph, and every employee or agent of such licensee, and every person holding a licence as operator or apprentice operator shall observe the following Regulations:

2. The room or cabinet in which any kinematograph used under the provisions of a moving-picture theatre licence shall be placed for purposes of operation shall be at least 7 feet high, the floor-space to vary according to the number of machines so placed therein, as follows:—

One kinematograph, not less than 6 feet long by 8 feet deep.

Two kinematographs, not less than 9 feet long by 8 feet deep.

For each additional kinematograph add 3 feet to length; and where the stereopticon lamp-house is separate and not attached to the kinematograph, add 3 feet to length. The depth of a room or cabinet shall be defined as the distance between walls following an imaginary line from the front to the back of the kinematograph and produced to said walls when kinematograph is fixed in operating position.

3. Every operating room or cabinet installed in premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre shall be constructed in accordance with the following requirements:—

(a.) The enclosing walls of room or cabinet shall be constructed of brick, burnt-clay tile, reinforced concrete, or a frame of iron angles and tees lined with asbestos board of a quality approved by the Censor.

(b.) If built of brick, the walls shall be not less than 8 inches in thickness and shall be plastered on both sides with cement mortar; the floor and ceiling shall be constructed of reinforced concrete, burnt-clay tile, or such other equally fire-proof material as may be approved by the Censor.

(c.) If built of burnt-clay tile, the walls shall be not less than 6 inches in thickness and shall be plastered on both sides with cement mortar; floor and ceiling to be built as provided for brick walls in subsection (b) of this section of the Regulations.

(g.) Openings.—There shall not, in addition to the entrance-door and overhead vent, be more than two openings in such room or cabinet for each kinematograph installed—one to provide for observation of the screen by the operator, and one for the projection of moving pictures. The opening for the projection of moving pictures shall not be more than 112 square inches in area, and the opening for observation not more than 96 square inches in area. All such openings shall be provided with gravity-doors constructed of metal not less than $\frac{3}{16}$ inch in thickness. Securely fastened to this flange shall be a riveted metal vent-pipe constructed of not less than No. 20 B. & S. gauge and at least 12 inches in diameter throughout its length, said pipe to lead to the outside of the building or to a special incombustible vent-flue; all parts of vent-pipe to be at least 6 inches from any combustible material.
